

Online programs/courses from Maine Community Colleges

Northern Maine Community College:

No whole programs online; a course here and there

Washington County Community College:

No complete programs online; nearly all the Education courses, general education courses, some hybrid courses.

Eastern Maine Community College:

General Education courses including Biology, Business, Geography, Medical Terminology, Math, Psychology, Sociology

Central Maine Community College:

Medical Coding and Electronic Health Records

Kennebec Valley Community College:

Business Administration

Marketing/Management Option

Accounting Option

Early Childhood Education

Health Information Technology

Pulp & Paper Technology

Certificate & AAS Degree

Mental Health Technology

Computer Information Systems

CIS & CADD Options

General Science

Liberal Studies

Medical Assisting

Radiologic Technology

Computed Tomography

Mammography

Some programs may require courses that have required in-person meetings and/or in-person practicum requirements. Please contact admissions or check the full course schedule for more information.

Southern Maine Community College:

Associate of Arts in Liberal Arts

Prospective students may contact Admissions at madmissions@smccme.edu or 207-741-5800.

York County Community College:

Liberal Studies

Criminal Justice

Many general education (common core) courses including biology - lab science

Stefanie Forster

sforster@yccc.edu